The bill is more than eight inches thick, contains eral pounds. There has been a jocose sugges tion that any Senator might indefi-nitely postpone consideration of any pending measure and lengthen the session of Congress considerably simply by proposing the giant bill as a rider and requesting that it be read. If the bill had been printed in the usual form, the Public Printer estimate, it would have made 13,720 pages and cost $186,-584.36, but the House committee and Attended reduced it in form to 1700 pages and in cost to $16,627.

LUX TOILET FORM 105

Pushing Prosecutions and Retorts to Dr. North.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 24 .nt criticism of the State Board of Health in medical journal editorials for failure to press prosecution of cases in which physicians are alleged to have fraudulently obtained Missouri medical licenses was answered yesterday by the State Board in a bristling statement charging the irregularities in-volved occurred under the former

Charges of dilatory tactics were the board stating that pending court cases, involving jurisdiction of the board to hear the fraud charges, had prevented prog-ress. Until these cases are determined by the courts the board can take no action on the remaining cases, it was said.

Speeches by Dr. Emmett F.
North of St. Louis, former president of the board, urging a cleanup of the situation, were answered with a statement, "The present Board of Health must confess it has not yet sufficiently recovered from the effects of the previous board's activities, of which the past president of the Missouri Medical Association, Dr. North, was president, to really and truly be able to diagnose the disease or find a disinfectant sufficiently strong to surely kill the germ."

The statement was issued by Dr. W. A. Clark of Jefferson City, president, and Dr. James Stewart, secretary of the board, with the approval of the full board, and is to be transmitted to the American Medical Association, Missouri Medical Association, and secretaries of all the county and city medical as-sociations in Missouri.

Reference to Dr. North. "All these irrugularities with which the present board has to deal is an inheritance from the strangely devious ways of the old board," the statement continues. "To those of us who have attempted to follow their footsteps through their various windings, the suberranean labyrinth on the Island.

The past president of the Missouri State Medical Association (Dr. North) has rendered an 'impassioned plea' for final fumiga-tion, so that Missouri may make a clean start in medical matters. If the present board could discover a panacea that would enable it to get rid of its ills like the old board and its past president got rid of the Dr. L. V. Cockrum case, its trials and tribulations would vanish into thin air."

The Cockrum case referred to was that of Dr. Leland V. Cock-rum of Lewis County, who was licensed by the former board, all though it was charged he did no have proper educational creden-tials to take the medical examina-Cockrum obtained the li-following a session of the Legislature at which it was said he was active in supporting legisla-tion sponsored by the Board of Health. ermitted to take examinations. Baker called for resignations of all the board members and reorganized it. In reorganization North, Enloe and two others weer dropped. Referring to an editoral in the American Medical Association Journal charging that Gov. Baker had used the State Board of Health as part of his ditical machine, the statemen aid "the members of the present State Board brand this statemen nsofar as it pertains to any aclvities with which they have been oncerned as absolutely false." It was declared the Governor had, at all times, been "impartial and helpful" and that he had appointed a bi-partisan obard, although not required to do so.

"The editorial was evidently written by some one who had half baked ideas as to actual condiions," the statement added, "a defect that he could have easily remedied had he seen fit to try The board was criticised editori-

BILLS INCREASING PAY OF FIREMEN APPROVED

Their Attorney to Sue for Interest on Fund During Time of Litigation.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment today approved two ordinances passed yesterday by the Board of Aldermen, providing a total of $561,000 which will grant to the city firemen their pay increase of $25 a month from April 13, 1925, through the current fiscal year. The pay increase was voted by the people of St. Louis. but the Board of Estimate and Apportionment at first refused to approve it. The State Supreme Court upheld the firemen in their claim, and the action today makes the pay increase final

The two ordinances approved do not carry provision for interest on the back pay of the firemen. Alroy S. Philips, their attorney, announced he would bring suit in the Circuit Court for the interest.

Two bills voting $1,360,000 for street lighting in districts already described in the newspapers were approved by the board.

At a meeting of the Legislative Committee of the Board of Aldermen today an ordinance prohibiting parking along Grand boulevard from Laclede avenue to Page boule-vard was passed. The committee took under advisement an ordinance purposing to close filling stations at noon on Sunday. This ordinance probably will go over until will adjourn for their summer vaca-

CHILD, 5, STRUCK IN EYE BY NEEDLE-POINTED DAR? Injury Results in Police Order to

Arrest All Persons Thowing Feathered Toys. Chief Gerk today issued an order instructing police to arrest all who throw feathered darts with needle pointed tips now being widely sold in notion and confectionery stores. Chief Gerk's attention was brought to this situation through the wounding of Leroy Moore, 5 years old, 1624 Arlingright eye by a dart Monday and will probably lose the eye's sight. Chief Gerk explained that there was no ordinance upon which pocould arrest sellers of the darts and declared he was asking the city legal department to draft an amendment to the present ordi-nance, which provides for prosecution of merchants selling explosives, so that it would include prosecution for the selling of darts.

ton avenue who was struck in the

Chief Gerk said, 'the darts are feathered, six inches long, and have needle pointed tips, two inches long; they are ex-

46 YEAR FIGHT OVER

New Highway to Be Built on East Side of Fox Creek in the Valley.

The 46-year-old fight over the location of Fox Creek road in Fox Creek Valley, St. Louis County, is at an end. The St. Louis County Court yesterday ordered that a new road shall be built on the east side of the creek and Walter Wehrle, attorney for the old settlers of the Valley who have opposed a new road as did their parents, has announced there will be no appeal from the court's ruling.

The court's order was based on a survey made by County Engineer Jablonsky who declared it would be impracticable to repair the old and that it would be approximately $16,089 cheaper to uild a new road on the east side. His report asserted that the route n the east side would be 1193 feet shorter than the present one.

After adopting the recommendation of Jablonsky the court dismissed the petition filed by the modern generation asking for a new road as well as the remon-strance of the old settlers opposed The petition dismissed was the eleventh filed since 1789 when the first petition was filed asking was built three years before, be

week at Wolff-Wilson's, 7th and Washington Av. Store, showing how easily "End-o-Corn" removes the most stubborn old corns-even

All this week hundreds of men and women have been profiting from the demonstration being held Wolff-Wilson's Store, 7th and Washington av., by two experts from Chicago.

All those who have stubborn corns or callouses and who have become discouraged by the poor results obtained from the use of so-called "corn cures," should surely see and hear this demonstration.

Old Vascular Corns, the kind that are filled with tiny veins and that bleed at the touch of a knife—these as well as all other kinds come off SO EASILY when "END-O-CORN"

And "END-O-CORN" is SO much safer and so much more pleasant to use than LIQUID remedies. "END-O-CORN" does not evaporate, no matter how long you keep it. So it is ALWAYS the same strength, and is always SAFE, SURE and HARMLESS.

Just to further assure you that rou will find "END-O-CORN" to REALLY end your corns, a guarantoe is enclosed with every package, and you can CASH this guarantee AT ANY BANK IN ST. LOUIS or any bank ANYWHERE in the U.S. if ALL your corns and callouses are not removed, painlessly, without cutting, and without ANY INCON-VENIENCE TO YOU. In fact, you will not even be conscious that "END-O-CORN" is working on them. "END-O CORN" has been tested and indersed by Wolff Wilson, but if you live at a distance from this got doesn't have it write to END-O-CORN LABORATORIES, 4 Casfield Bl., Chicago, and we will see that you receive a jar.

W. E. Gabriack Slowed, Car With Foot Brake and Died in Bew Minutes.

William E. Alabriack, dying at the wheel of him moving automobile yesterday, in Cito uteau avenue, a short distance east of Taylor avenue, had the presidence of mind to push down the fcot brake, which slowed his car.

His wife, who was accompanying him, switched off the motor, but was not able to keen the car, a Packard, from striking a parked machine. She helped him to the sidewalk after his collapse and he died there several minutes later, about 2 p. m.

Gabriack, who was 31 pears old

Gabriack, who was 31 pears old and resided at 725 North Spring avenue, had said nothing was he tried to stop the car. His wife said he had complained ye turday morning of feeling ill, but went about his work as a collector for the Industrial Loan Co. He had been under a physician's care for heart trouble for about a year.

The Packard bumped into the Chevrolet sedan of Isadore Burstech of 1701 South Ninth street, which was at the curb, and pushed it onto the sidewalk. The sedan sideswiped a Chevrolet touring car parked in front of it belonging to Mat Stin front of it, belonging to Mat Stin had been driving west.

East St. Louis Boy, 13, Killed When Struck by an Auto.

Roy Gregory, 13 years old, of 530 Trendley avenue, East St. Louis, died at the Deaconess Hospital at noon yesterday from a fractured sknull suffered 30 minutes earlier, when he was struck and knocked to the concrete highway at Cahokia by the automobile of John H. Urke, a railroad engineer of 1506 Cleve-land avenue, East St. Louis. Urke was arrested at the hospital, where he took the boy, but was released on bond pending the outcome of

Gregory and two other boys were begging rides along the highway. They were going to return to East St. Louis and were standing at the edge of the pavement signaling, Gregory ahead of his companions, and hailing a truck which Urke was following. One of the boys no-ticed an airplane and called attention to it, Gregory running out on the pavement from beside the truck, which Urke said obscured him from sight, into the path of Urke said he swerved his car, but was prevented by the other two boys from swerving enough to avoid striking Gregory. Witnesses said Urke's car was going about 15 miles an hour. Roy was the son of

Veronica Treatment

THE Veronica Treatment is one way I know to reduce weight and at the same time improve the general health. Of all the girls I know in Hollywood who have lost weight by taking Veronica Water there is not one who does not feel better in every way or who shows lines, flabbiness, wrinkles, or weakening after effects as a result of this treatment. I think Ver-

Reduces Weight-

Veronica Water is the new, harmless method for reducing. Prescribed by physicians. Thousands of de-lighted users. No starvation diets, no tiring exercises. Try this new and simple way to reduce. Improves your general health, too. Order a case of Veronica from your druggist. Take two-thirds of a water glass (about six ounces) before meals for thirty days. If at the end of that time you do not note a definite and distinct all around improvement in your physical condition, write Veronica Springs Co., Santa Barbara, Calif., giving name of druggist from whom you purchased Veronica Water and the amount you paid will be refunded. Veronica is sold by all drug stores everywhere.

Something big is happening among fine cars

Its far-reaching effect upon the industry

Everyone in the industry recognized many months ago that the beautiful Hupmobile Eight had evolved from the straighteight principle a new kind of performance and a new and almost incredibly higher value.

It was not long after the Hupmobile Eight made its appearance, that engineers commenced to tell motor car manufacturers there was no car in America to be properly compared with it.

Hupmobile Eight Startled the Industry

The word spread about very quickly that probably only one car in the world was comparable to the Hupmobile Eight.

And that car was the product of the fine European engineering genius—a handbuilt eight-cylinder car costing several times the Hupmobile Eight price.

What is happening in the automobile industry, however, goes deeper than this startling of automobile engineers and manufacturers.

The new development has to do with the way the American people now think of fine cars and fine performance.

And it goes straight back to the actual demonstration and proof—every day and all over America—of the revolutionary new kind of eight-cylinder performance and value offered by the Hupmobile Eight.

An Uprooting of Antique Ideas

It is, in the first place, an uprooting from the public mind of the old-fashioned idea that mere price or name must necessarily mean prestige.

Motor car buyers are now sensing the prestige of super-fine performance, the prestige of the newest and the best when that newest and best is the super-efficient development of a super-efficient principle, as with the Hupmobile Eight.

So the Hupmobile Eight is, in a way, erecting a new aristocracy of motordom, attracting to its banner the people who rate highly beauty and performance and value, and who buy with unerring, shrewd judgment.

In the second place, it is a new and better conception of what fine performance really is—and of the utter superiority of the eight-cylinder principle, as Hupmobile has perfected it, in providing such performance.

Now, at last, the public is discovering that no other kind of car, however well built, can ever give the kind of performance you find in this beautiful Hupmobile.

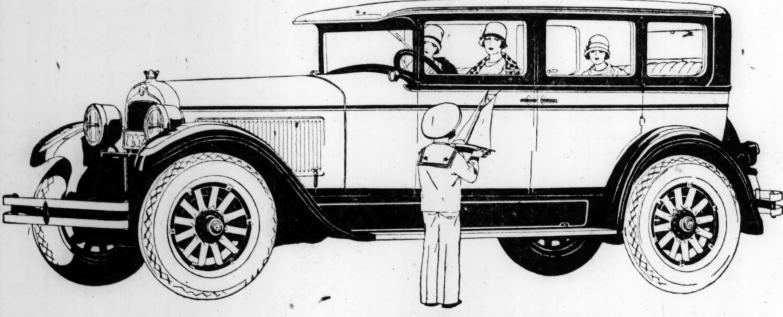

Discriminating Buyers Discovered This Eight

It is for these reasons that that part of the public which instinctively turns to the finest in everything, discovered and advertised the Hupmobile Eight—and quickly made it the largest-selling straight eight in the world.

It is these causes which underlie the fact that the public is advertising the Hupmobile Eight even more enthusiastically today, and discovering it in increasing numbers everywhere.

He thought it would be economy

TOHNSON pondered the question as I to who should be execution of his will.

Somehow, his thoughts seemed to run to economy. His wife, he reasoned, was his principal beneficiary. Why tax her inheritance with an, executor's feeeven though it be small in amount?

Johnson overlooked, in making his will, a fact that he would not lose sight of for an instant in running his business, namely: That true economy lies in getting and paying for experience, judgment and knowledge.

Upon Johnson's death, his widow attempted, to handle alone the numerous and complicated duties of an executor. She lost valuable time, at the cost of the estate, and was most unfortunate in deciding investment

Had the St. Louis Union Trust Company been named executor, or co-executor with the wife, considerable expense might have been saved and certain security losses would undoubtedly have been averted. The savings alone in this case would have offset the executorship fee. This fee is a moderate one, limited by law, and is no larger than that which an individual may properly charge. It is, in fact, a small price to pay for an important service, rendered at a time when the consideration of business matters may be almost unendurable to your wife. Ask our officers to explain to you the real economy of trust company service.

PUT THIS IN YOUR PIPE—AND SMOKE IT! Yes, sir! Right here at home—in good old St. Louis—is the largest chain store of its kind in the world and STAR SQUARE is the name it goes by. In no other city on the face of the earth are there seven stores like it under one unified management and direction. STAR SQUARE stands for huge buying power; and buying power means extra discounts. The middleman is eliminated and prices are down to bedrock—and that is the meat in the cocoanut. Now, be buyer-wise.

You Can Give Them Comfort

Run-bver heels and leaning ankles give the first warning that your feet need help. Not only are they unsightly but they give visible proof that the intricate 26-bone structures of your feet have broken down under the weight of your body. To restore and gently hold the lowered bones in natural alignment is the only method of permanent correction. This is the exclusive principle of feather-

Provided with adjustable features at the heel, arch and ball, Wizard Arch Builders can be adjusted to give support to your feet right where it is needed. The bone structures will be perfectly aligned.

Thus, the cause of run-over heels and bulging counters is eliminated. Foot pains at the heel, the ball and the arch will cease. Your feet will function with freedom and grace.

This Week-Special Demonstration

That you may know how comfortable your feet can be made to feel, just visit our Foot Relief Department. Highly competent foot experts will gladly advise and give you the benefit of a trial fitting. There is no obligation. Come in Friday or (Shoe Section-Main Floor.)

Land Planted Dollars

THERE are hundreds of St. Louis I family fortunes that have been built through the wise investment in St. Louis land. Dollars wisely planted in city land grow many fold.

KINGSHIGHWAY HILLS

It is close in, but a few minutes' drive through park and boulevards to the heart of the city. It is being developed by the Cyrus Crane Willmore Organization, Inc., who own it without encumbrance and who are investing $700,000 in improvements. Lots in Kingshighway Hills promise, in our opinion, a great increase over present prices. Visit Kingshighway Hills, learn how a small payment and your credit will secure for you a splendid investment opportunity.

Kingshighway Hills is on Kingshighway, just a few blocks South of Tower Grove Park.

Desloge Consolidated Is Ordered to Pay $162,643 It Had Listed as Worthless Debt.

> Post-Dispatch Bureau, 20-23 Wyatt Bldg.

WASHINGTON, June 24 .- The Desloge Consolidated Lead Co. of St. Louis has been ordered by the United States Board of Tax Appeals to make up a deficiency of $162,-643.31 in connection with its inome tax for the year 1918.

The board held that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue was not in error when he refused to allow the St. Louis company to deduct $236,573.83 as worthless debts. owed by the Lead Products Co. of St. Louis. The books of the Con-solidated company showed the opinion stated, that only a part of this debt had been declared worthless during the taxable year. Oral testimony was given that the president of the Consolidated company had made an agreement to wipe out the debt Dec. 16, 1918.

The tax board held that where the recollection of a witness conflicted with accounting records made at the time of the transaction the written records were entitled to greater weight.

BAYONET TRAINING OMITTED

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Recent controversy over the bayonet combat instructions given in the reserve officers training corps units prompted the War Department to make public today the latest in struction to officers on that subject dated Feb. 23, stating that in no case is bayonet training to be a part of the work of corps units.

The order further directs tha private publications dealing with training are not to be used as textbooks in the units and that in the existing textbooks the bayonet training sections are to be ignored until new books which do not contain it can be supplied.

ARKANSAS. (In the Manner of Lawyer Troll.) Your Excellency: Before you honor

requisition for William Allen Scott Rutherford and thus cruelly tear that young Sybarite away from the night life of Pine Bluff, I will tell you something about the people who want him.

Some time ago, your excellency, the City of St. Louis was subjected to a reign of terror by beliboys. These young barbarians, who are no doubt quite as incorrigible here in Little Rock as they are in St. Louis, set up a dictatorship in the hotels. They un dertook to say where and how people should sleep, what they should eat, and what time they should get in. If you went to a St. Louis hotel you were the guest of a bellboy. You had to ask him where you got off

It was at the height of this tyranny that William Allen Scott Rutherford came to St. Louis. He is one of the true sons of freedom, your excellency, a man in whom still rings the dauntless challenge of Bunker

He went to one of our hotels, and a bellboy began to pick on him. You can believe, your excellency, that this was more than any citizen of Arkansas could stand. William Allen Scott Rutherford promptly pulled out his six-shooter, and with a loud cry of "Sic semper tyrannis," so be it with all tyrants, he shot the bellboy deader than Julius Caesar.

Now, your excellency, I want you to say whether or not a man who had the courage to do that ought to be persecuted but rather should enjoy the gratitude of his kind. I want you to recall what was done with St. George and Jack the Giant Killer. Were they extradited? Were they bound in chains and carried off somewhere to make somebody Governor? That is all they want in Missouri with

William Affen Scott Rutherford, your excellency. The Attorney-General of that State, who is prosecuting this case, wants to be Governor. He thinks if he can send William Allen Scott Rutherford, who slew a bellboy and thus liberated hotel life in Louis, to the penitentiary, or better to the scaffold, he can strut around in a torpedo-tailed coat and call himself macaroni. I have nothing else to say, your excellency. It was said by everybody who went to the St. Louis hotels that somebody ought to kill a bellboy, and William Allen Scott Rutherford had the courage to kill one. This single man, the Attorney-General of Missouri, who wants to be Governor, who wants to step out in an Abraham Lincoln tie under a two-gallon hat, is the only person in Missouri, so far as I know, who has not applauded that act. You, your excellency, are the Governor of Arkansas. It makes no difference to you who becomes Governor of Missouri or if nobody does. It does, however, make some difference to the hero of Pine Bluff, William Allen Scott Rutherford, whether or not someone becomes Governor of Missouri at the expense of his liberty. I leave it to

Poor Interchange Facilities Hamper Freight Handling, Clemens Says,

Edward Clemens, traffic manager of the Termina! Railroad Association, discussing the bridgetrade ordinance Tuesday before the East St. Louis Lions' Club, said the difficulty of the Terminal in handling freight speedily was not due so much to lack of river crossings as to the dispressed physical arrangements on the west side of the river. The east side facilities are "100 per cent," ne

"In dealing with the transportation problem," Clemens said, "particularly as it relates to the East St. Louis-St Louis situation, there appears to be a more or less general impression among well-meaning public spirited citizens that additional main tracks across the river will prove a cure for all of the troubles that are encountered. This view is excusable because it is apparently shared by some of our Poor Interchange Pacilities. "As a matter of fact, the mere crossing of the river is simplicity itself. The performance requires minutes. The four but a few tracks now operated across the river by the Terminal Railroad Association are capable of carrying several times the volume of business that moves over them and it would be practicable to make increased use of them, but for one thing; that is, lack of adequate classification and interchange facilities or the west side of the river, due narticularly to the narrow channel through which both freight and passenger business must move and due to the use of the tunnel, which must be operated under what is known as a positive block, which precludes handling trains closer han about five or six minutes apart and to the conglomerate mixture of freight and passenger business furing about eight hours each day. when, to guard against possible in erference with the handling of assenger trains, we practically bandon freight movements.

"The exchange of bridges con-mplated under the proposal now ming considered, will do much to implify operations and this simlification in itself will have the utility of the Terminal system was designed and built to carry the equivalent of E:30 loading. It has been maintained in practically per-fect condition, all menewable parts have been renewed and greatly strengthened until the floor system is now capable of carrying E-60 loading, which means that it is fully 100 per cent stronger than it was when it was built.

"Engineers qualified to pass judgment, including the consulting engineer of the City of St. Louis opine that the Eads Bridge is much stronger than it was when it was with ordinary maintenance and re-

Perminal Charge Is for Services in Addition to Bridge Haul.

Defenders of the railroads' proposal for use of the Municipa bridge point out that a comparison of $10 to $12 a car, the present terminal charge for freight handling in the district, with $1 a ear, the estimated cost of crossing the river if the Municipal bridge is put work on a "user" charge basis, is unfair to the Terminal.

The Terminal charge of $10 $12 a car is for taking a car from an East Side trunk line, hauling it over the bridge and delivering it to an industry on any part of the Terminal system, however remote or for a similar movement in the opposite direction. The $1 estimated Municipal bridge cost is for cost of crossing the bridge only To be comparable with the Terminal charge, it is pointed out, there must be added to the $1 the cost of delivering the car to the industry or to the trunk line rail.

William Cotter, president of the Manufacturers' Railroad, a belt line competing with the Terminal. said yesterday it was impossible to estimate what the sum should be added to the $1 bridge crossing charge to make a proper comparison, but thought it "substantially lower" than the present Terminal

"We are pledged, if we use the bridge," he said, "to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission to establish a rate, based upon the actual cost of moving freight over the free bridge. We estimate that we can make the crossing in two and one-half hours by the Municipal bridge, whereas it now requires us as long as 10 hours by way of the Terminal. That is bne saving that is substantial."

> Missouri Executive Refuses to Dicker With Terral of Arkansas Over Extradi-

CASE OF DOLLINGER CIVIL, NOT CRIMINAL

Other Man, H. J. Marks, No Longer Under Indictment and Charge Has Been Wiped Off Record.

Gov. Baker's refusal to surrener Paul Dollinger of Fredericktown, Mo., to Arkansas, which was given by Gov. Terral of Arkansas as the principal reason why he de-clined to give up William Allen Scott Rutherford to Missouri, is not likely to be changed in any 'horse trade" between the Gover-

At Jefferson City today Gov. Baker reiterated his belief that he acted in accordance with the facts in the Dollinger case and would not reverse himself. He took the position that a Governor can act on three questions in deciding an extradition case. These are: The proper form of the requisitions, whether the man to be extradited is a fugitive from justice, and whether the State wanting him is acting sincerely or is being used by individuals who wish to collect a civil claim by threatening crimi-

Case Civil, Not Criminal. It was on the last ground that Gov. Baker refused to extradite Dollinger. The facts in this case as shown by evidence indicate a civil dispute between Dollinger and John Kizer of Pocahontas, Ark., ver a cattle deal. They disagreed s to the price to be paid for cattle which Kizer sold Dollinger and the atter stopped payment on a check for $500. Kizer refused to accept the settlement offered by Dollinger and caused him to be indicted in Arkansas for "overdrafting a bank count," which is a felony in that tion hearing that he had not over-drawn his bank account, that he had five times the amount of the check on deposit when he stopped payment. He argued that he could not adjust the civil claim Kizer had ed on criminal prosecution, but was villing to have a court decide what ne should pay Kizer for the cattle as soon as criminal proceedings were dropped. Kizer remained adamant and as & result has not received full payment for his cattle, Dollinger having paid but $100 account before the disput

Dollinger Gives His Version. Dollinger told the Post-Dispatch y long distance telephone today his version of the affair as fol-

"I went to Pocahontas, Ark., in February, 1923, to buy a carload of 'cutter' grade cattle from John Kizer. (Cutter cattle are the next to the lowest grade on the market, canner cattle being the lowest.) I contracted with Kizer to buy a carload of 'cutter' cows from him for delivery at St. Louis within 10 days and I paid him $100 down The cattle, we estimated, would come to about $600 in all. "Before the 10 days were up Kizer wired me that he had sold the cows to anoher party. I in-sisted he had broken his contract and he agreed to get together another bunch ofr me of the 'cut-ter' grade. I went down to Arkter' grade. I went down to Alra ansas and looked at the bunch he had and they didn't measure up. Kiser swore they would all sell as 'cutters.' So I had him stipulate 'cutters.' The cows did in writing that if the cows did in writing that if the cows did not all grade as 'cutters' he would refund the difference. Accord-ingly, I paid him by check the $500 balance. The price was $2.75 a hundred pounds on the hoof and the $600 I agreed to pay was on the condition that the cattle all the condition that the cattle all graded as cutters.

Cows Graded as "Canners." "When the cows got to St. Louis half of them were graded as "canner" cattle at a much lower price. I felt that Kizer had not lived up to his agreement and stopped payment on the check. I had plenty of money in the bank and it wasn't my fault that the clerk stamped 'insufficient funds' on it instead of "payment stopped." I didn't beat Kizer, he tried to beat me, and I was willing to adjust the civil claim according to our contract until he had me arrested for criminally 'overdrafting' my account. I said, 'whenever you drop the criminal charge I'll settle ac-cording to our agreement. He Kizer claims that Dollinger owes Him more money for the cattle than Dollinger is willing to pay, and Dollinger prefers to have the matter adjudicated in a civil court after Kizer dismissions his criminal case. Facts disclosed in previous news J. Marks of St. Louis, the second man named by Terral as wanted in Arkansas, is not under indica-ment there. The last time Arkansas asked for him was in 1917, and in 1920 three indictments charging that he made false bank statements were dismissed by the Prosecuting Attorney of Pike County, Ark. Marks formerly was president of a bank at Murfreesboro, in this county, and the bank failed in 1917, a year after Marks had sold his in-terest and moved to St. Louis.

No Basis to Marks Case. Frederick D. Gardner, then Govrnor, refused to surrender Marks, believing that there was no basis in fact for the criminal charges against him. It was shown that Marks had returned to Arkansas after the bank failed and helped examiners clear up its books, and through the confession of the cashier, who served a prison term or his misdeeds. Marks could not e held personally accountable for

A. G. Pennix, attorney of Murfreesboro, Ark., and former Prosecuting Attorney of Pike County said over the long distance telephone today that three indictments against Marks charging falsification of bank statements were dis-missed in March, 1920, at "defendant's costs," because the authorities there were convinced they could never get Marks back for Dismissal of the charges against Marks was satisfactory to the Arkansas stockholders in the defunct bank. Pennis said, because he agreed to pay a $500 bond forfeiture against his name which was reduced to judgment in 1918 and also agreed to dismiss a suit in the Federal Court at Texarkana against various stockholders in th bank who had given him notes amounting to $3500 for stock which they had purchased. In Step with Progress The Greater St. Louis Exposition

N the afternoon of September 4th the gates of the Greater St. Louis Exposition will be thrown open and the people of St. Louis and the surrounding states will be privileged to witness the greatest exposition since the days of the St. Louis World's Fair.

The Greater St. Louis Exposition sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the City of St. Louis, commemorates the 150 years of industrial progress since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This exposition will be the foundation for a permanent Fall Exposition which every year will invite to our city, industry, agriculture and animal husbandry—the very fundamentals of our great commercial development. It is especially fitting that this exposition should be held in the heart of the Great Empire of the Mississippi Valley-St. Louis.

One million people will come to St. Louis to see this huge enterprise and industrial exhibition. Special rates will be offered by all the railroads. Special street cars and bus lines will run direct to the fair grounds in Forest Park. Every hotel in St. Louis will be filled to overflowing with the gala crowds who will throng the streets-bringing untold business to industries and merchants of St. Louis.

An elaborate, unparalleled program of entertainment automobile show, fireworks, bands, military manoeuvers, parades, air stunts and other features assure our visitors a wonderful time.

Hundreds of exhibit booths will tell the 1,000,000 visitors the story of the industrial progress of the manufacturers of St. Louis and the Mississippi Valley. Will your exhibit be there?

All of the automobile section—100,000 square feet—ha been sold. More than 250 display booths have been spoken for before this first official announcement is published. Choice locations are still available to representative manufacturers and business enterprises who make reservations now. Have you made your reservation?

The Greater St. Louis Exposition is an assured success— The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce is back of it. Read the list of guarantors and exhibitors. Your business should be represented with a booth.

Pick up your telephone now and call Central 7565, Station 5, Chamber of Commerce, and a representative will bring you detailed information.

y the Associated Press. EMFORIA, Kan., June 24.—Despite a statewide injunction pro-hibiting Ku Klux Klan demonstraions, a parade of 1000 men and 300 women wearing the regalia of the Klan, took place last night. An application by the State for an inunction to prevent the parade was refused yesterday by Judge Richardson in District Court on ground that Klan parades violated no law and that the State had no authority to interfere with them. He also overruled a city ordinance passed yesterday requiring Klans men to wear numbers on their regalia and to register with the poice prior to the parade. Judge Richardson's action fol-lowed a State Supreme Court decision a year and a half ago, sustain-ing the State Charter Board in refusing to grant a charter to the Klan in Kansas. TODAY Nevers' name again figures in the news, for the first time in many weeks. He pitched the Browns to victory the Massilon (O.) club. Nevers should be pitching every day for some club. He can get nowhere by sitting around wing and his magnificent torso ought to be delevoping in the school of experience.

Nevers refused to go to Tulsa, some weeks ago. He had an ironclad contract, it was said, and could dictate. But the idea of taking somebody's money without making a move to give any-thing in return is repugnant to every fair-minded person; and Nevers has proved to be of the right stuff. It is said that he is ready to go to Tulsa or some other place where he can get into the game daily and learn to be

Here's News!

Knocks Out That Knock

Ethyl is here again—and that knock is gone again! It's great news!

Remember how your car behaved on hills? That exasperating knock! Power slipping away, fading out not quite able to make it on high.

But those days are gone - because Ethyl is back—in Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline. Fill your tank with Red Crown-Ethyl-step on the accelerator and watch her climb! You hardly know your own car. The engine is alive with power! Smooth performance! Steady efficiency! An eager pick-up!

The answer? Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline in the tank makes carbon work for you instead of against you.

The schedules under which the Harry electric suburban trains will be operated are materially faster, in many cases, than those in the present steam service. In addition to a general speeding up of the service under electrification, there will be more trains soperated on both weekdays and Sundays, and trains will be operated on special and express schedules on Sundays as well as weekdays. Heretofore the Sunday service has been almost al

THE first mortgage on real estate has been in use, undergoing a process of improvement, for over four thousand years.

Today, backed by the guarantee of the house of issue, fortified by insurance against loss, the first mortgage coupon bond is universally recognized as one of the soundest and most desirable investments for those who equire absolute safety of principal and uninterrupted payment of interest.

A Billion a Year

During 1925, in the United States alone, approximately one billion dollars was invested in urban real estate first mortgage bonds.

This is twice the total invested in such securities during 1923—and twenty times the total for 1919.

Most Stable, Conservative and Profitable

The oldest and largest investors in the United States are the great life insurance companies; and according to the report of the Lockwood Committee, they "have overwhelmingly established that mortgage loans on real estate proved the most stable, conservative and best income paying investments, yielding year in and year out about 20% higher income returns than other securities."

34% Higher Income

A comparison recently made between the yield of 60 high-grade bonds and the yield of Adair Guaranteed-Insurable 61/2 % Bonds shows that Adair Bonds have an income advantage of 34% over the desirable railroad and industrial bonds.

Morever, Adair Bonds do. not fluctuate, whereas the yield of high grade railroad and industrial bonds has been steadily declining since 1921 and recently reached the lowest point in years.

Unusual Protection

Successful investors in first mortgage bonds have learned to depend upon 3 things for unqualified safety: /

GUARANTEE ADAIR REALTY & TRUST CO. Capital, Surplus and Profits over $2,500,000

- They demand an unconditional guarantee of principal and interest, backed by the capital, surplus and profits of the house of issue. No charge should be made for this guarantee.
- They ask for and carefully study the current financial state ment of the underwriting mortgage investment house.
- They insist upon the right to insure their holdings against loss at any time in an independent surety company. This privilege shall be optional with them, but non-cancellable by the surety company.

He tugged at his hair wretchedly and tears of rage and futility came into his eyes. Lind talked to him until he was calmer. and then he walked down the road with her toward the Klovaczs'. When he saw Mark coming he

They went on for a while "Lindy, dear, you've got to get away from that place before the old boy goes crazy and kills you

"Why don't you go to live at Sandbos'?" Lind shook her head. "Judith won't be let off the place at all I think it would only be be as much of a comfort to her as I told Sven what happened, and he's going to wait until a chance comes for him to take her away-forcibly. Then the old man will probably burst and it will be all over with him." They went on through the deepening shadows between the cedars. The road lay like a blue ribbon ahead of them, and the evening was as pure as many that they had known. But over the earth hung a pall, as if there had come a halt in the process of growth. "Mark-this place is sinistercan't you feel the dread in it?"

"But it doesn't touch us, Lind.
We don't belong to it. We have

Lind moved closer to him to assure herself that it was so.
It was an unusually dry August, and the stacking would begin early. Martin wondered whether Caleb would get a man to help now that Judith was confined to the house. Ellen and Charlie were scarcely skillful enough for the job. But Martin knew better than to ask any questions after what had happened. Conversation between Caleb and the rest of the family had practically ceased, and the only bond now was the work that went on without interruption and without question.

Amelia went about her tasks in the house and the garden from morning until night with almost rapt attention, as if they were something she was afraid to lose. When she came in from the glar-ing srn, the comparative darkness of the house would blind her, and she would have the feeling that Judith was not there, that she had tting with her back bent, peeling potatoes for dinner, probably, or mending a bit of harness that Caleb had handed her without a word that morning. And Amelia would harden her heart again and repeat her resolve. Judith was Caleb's child. She did not speak to the girl except to give her structions about the cooking or the house work. Judith had come only a pair of hands that did what they were told. She spoke to no one, looked at no one.

To Lind her apathy was heartbreaking. For days the Teacher did not approach her, knowing that it would do no good. When she came in from school she would hear her, perhaps, moving heavily about upstairs, scrubbing the pin : floors, or would see her sitting stolidly absorbed over a pailful of vegetables that she was cleaning. Lind knew that it could not go on like this, that the fire in Judith would break out in some still more turbulent form the longer she was kept under control where Judith had driven was Caleb's wish that it should not be removed.

The days became languid and sonorous with the drone of bees over tawny meadows; white and yellow butterflies danced as thoughtlessly as ever over the pink remnant of the last wild rose: the bush was a flurry of wings and song, and every day the children to make drawings of with charcoal mellowness in the air: growth had me to an end. But she went on with her work, grateful for the duties that kept her in the school house, away from the Gares.

Martin learned, to his mild con-sternation, that a man would not that Caleb never recognized. It was set down as unwillingness. Caleb sat in the cart patiently watching the growing stacks. Occasionally he gave an encouraging word to Charlie or rebuked Ellen for her carelessness. Ellen set her mouth in a straight line and her small red hands took a firmer grip on the handle of the hay fork. The stacks grew, large, smooth and rain-proof, gratifying to the eye of Caleb Gare. MEDITATIONS H. G. Wells Says MARRIAGS BEEN OU MARRIED WOMAN By HELEN ROWLAND

Man Is What Woman Makes Him. MAN is just as bad as a woman will let him be and just as A good as she compels him to be.

He is just as polite as she insists he shall be and just as impudent as she permits him to be.

He is just as selfish as she encourages him to be and just as self-sacrificing as she forces him to be.

He is just as lazy as she will allow him to be and just as industrious as she drives him to be.

He is just as polished as she trains him to be and just as uncouth as she gives him a chance to be.

He is just as chivalrous as she demands he shall be and just as nonchalant as she will permit him to be.

He is just as gentle as she inspires him to be-and just as brutal as she suffers him to be.

A woman is not only her brother's keeper-but her husband's. her uncle's, her cousin's, her son's and her "boy friend's." Woman is the Sunday of man," says Michelet. Yes, and his prayer-meetings. But man is his own SATURDAY NIGHT! When a girl complains that men insist on "petting," but that they no longer make love, she is testifying against herself. Men are exactly what woman demands they shall be or permits them to be. If she prefers razzing to romance, and would rather be mauled than cherished; if she would rather be called "Old Thing" than

"Sweetheart," and "Funny Face," than "Dearest," that is her own affair. And if that's all she GETS, it's her own fault! Man may be the brains, the strength and the beauty of the human race-but woman is its SOUL and its conscience. Also, its manners, its civilization, its romance and its night watchman! when she lies down on the job and let's man go his sweet way, he becomes fust a modified caveman.

God made men and honeysuckle vines-but he put woman here to train them in the way they should GO!

To do satisfactory work the machine should be frequently and carefully oiled. It pays to use only the best oil. Good machine oil is clear and free from war.

A pretty finish for a blouse is the scalloped collar with the scallops extending down each side of the pleated vestee.

Lace is extremely modish this season. A simple afternoon dress in turquoise blue lace has a finely pleated skirt, a blouse scalloped at the bottom and a belt of the lace which has a rhinestone buckle. A matching chiffon flower attached on the left shoulder gives a smart touch.
